

CALVARY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT CALVARY!

We are glad to have you with us today for worship. Please stop by our Welcome Table in the Chalice Room for more information about our church family and involvement opportunities in our ministry. The restrooms and nursery are located in the Christian Education wing through the sanctuary doors to your right. Just follow the signage.

DURING TODAY'S WORSHIP

Large-print bulletins are available at the entrances.

Individual listening devices for improved sound are also available from ushers.

If your infant or child needs care or extra attention during the worship service you may leave the Sanctuary and return as you wish. Rocking chairs are available at the back of the Sanctuary. Our Church Nursery is staffed during worship and fellowship time.

Children's packets containing quiet activities are available in baskets located at the back of the Sanctuary.

Burgundy fellowship registers are passed for you to sign, so that we might know you are here; all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please silence all electronic devices when in the Sanctuary.

IF YOU ARE NEW TO CALVARY

We invite you to stop by fellowship hour after worship for refreshments, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

Parking, several professional offices make their parking lots available to church members on Sunday mornings. Feel free to take an available space at the following locations, and thank these neighbors when you have the chance: Rose Medical Associates – the lot runs between Klondyke Avenue and School Street, parallel to South Seventh; Northwood Realty – near the corner of South Seventh and School (please do not park in their reserved spaces); Bonya, Gazza & DeGory – lot on the left on School, near the light at South Sixth. (That office was once Calvary's manse.) The Indiana Borough Parking Garage is located at 650 Water Street.

Leader: Let us pray: Lord God, because Jesus has taught us

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where nations budget for war,
while Christ says, "Put up your sword":

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where countries waste food and covet fashion, while Christ says, "I was hungry . . . I was thirsty . . .":

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where powerful governments claim their policies are heaven blessed, while Scripture states that God helps the powerless:

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where Christians seek the kingdom in the shape of their own church, as if Christ had come to build and not to break barriers:

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where women who speak up for their dignity are treated with scorn or contempt:

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where men try hard to be tough, because they are afraid to be tender:

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where we, obsessed with being adults, forget to become like children:

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where our prayers falter, our faith weakens, our light grows dim:

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Where Jesus Christ calls us:

People: Your kingdom come, your will be done.

Leader: Lord God, you have declared that your kingdom is among us.
Open our ears to hear it, our hands to serve it, our hearts to hold it;
through Jesus Christ our Lord who taught us to pray together:

Unison: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TALKING TO GOD – A Study of the Psalms, Sunday mornings, May 28 at 9:30 a.m. and June 4, 18, 25, at 9:00 a.m. in the Dining Room. Psalms make up some of the most beautiful literature in our religious tradition. Their words are used in multiple aspects of worship and in the prayer life of the faithful. Psalms also offer some of the most challenging and candid conversations with God. We often look at Psalms with an eye on those writings that make us comfortable. What about the Psalms that make us uncomfortable? Do they have something to say to us also? The words of some Psalms may be unsettling, disruptive, and even violent; but, those same words offer us a glimpse into the depth of a soul reaching out to God even in anguish and even in anger. Together, we will look deep into the Psalms that comfort, the Psalms that uplift, and the Psalms that challenge.

CALVARY'S NEW EASTER BANNER – Calvary's three part Easter wall hanging is composed of symbols which celebrate this most holy festival of the church calendar. At the center is the monogram, formed by two greek letters "chi" (X) and "rho" (P), of Christ. This much used symbol of the early church is found in ancient Christian catacombs. The suns signify the joyful day of resurrection. The lilies are symbols of immortality. The bulb decays in the ground, yet from it new life is released. Butterflies also are symbolic of resurrection and eternal life. As the butterfly leaves the pupa and soars upward with a new body, so through Jesus Christ are his followers born to a new life by the death of the body. We express our gratitude to Marcia Buriok and Sandy Burwell for their inspired and creative work.

CALVARY DAY AT HOSS'S STEAK AND SEA – Thank you for your participation in our Calvary Day. The numbers are still out but the results should be positive. We hope you enjoyed this beneficial break in your week! It was nice seeing so many familiar faces.
